Your Degree Option

K-State offers a Bachelor of Science degree in Interdisciplinary Social Science through distance education. This degree completion program is designed primarily for students who have completed the equivalent of the first two years of college. Social science is a branch of learning that examines society's institutions—their structures, theoretical foundations, evaluation, and interrelation—and how they affect and are affected by human behavior. Applications for admission to this program are accepted through the Bachelor's Degree Completion Program in the Division of Continuing Education.

Get Started

The degree map on the reverse page will show you a listing of classes you need to take from Butler Community College and K-State to complete the History and Interdisciplinary Social Science 2+2. This degree map has been reviewed and accepted by both schools as an illustration, which is subject to change. Many other combinations of courses may be possible, so students should contact a K-State representative or their community college advisor before committing to a particular transfer program.

To learn more about the Interdisciplinary Social Science degree:

- Phone: 785-532-5375 or 1-800-622-2KSU (2578)
- E-mail: informationdce@k-state.edu
- Website: www.dce.k-state.edu/affiliations/2+2/butler/

Your Career

Kansas State University's social science graduates find jobs across the entire spectrum of private, public, and governmental positions. Some jobs held by social science alumni include: Loan Processor, Manager/Assistant Manager, Administrative Assistant, Research Investigator, Case Manager, and many more. The social science degree prepares graduates for the workforce by developing research skills, communication skills, critical thinking, and team project experience.

To apply to K-State, fill out the application, pay the application fee, and have all of your previous transcripts sent to the K-State Office of Admissions. More details about this process can be found at: www.dce.k-state.edu/artsci/social-science/getting-started
